

THE WRIGHTS LEFT BOSTON RIGHT AWAY

Scene—Lobby of the Touraine Hotel
Time—Thursday

Enter Messrs. Clerks, bell boys and reporters. Reporter approaches desk and addresses Clerk.

Reporter—Where's Wright? Clerk—Left.

Reporter—When? Clerk—When what? Reporter—When did he leave? Clerk—He didn't.

Reporter—But you said "left." Clerk—Yes.

Reporter—Wright. Clerk—Say, are you right?

Reporter—Yes. Clerk—Well, who do you mean?

Reporter—Wright. Clerk—Oh all right. Front, take this gentleman to Mr. Wright.

Exit Reporter.

Front—But Mr. Wright is not in here.

Front—Oh, all right. Clerk—No, all right. Both of them. (Quick curtain.)

Enter Messrs. Wright, Wilbur and Treville. Messrs. Wright and Wilbur are talking on the wings of the morning, to-day, after

MRS. PFAFF'S
APPEAL DENIED
IN WILL CASE

Judge Arthur P. Rugg of the Supreme Court today denied the petition of Mrs. Pfaff to set aside the will of her husband, which was made in 1928.

who sought to break the will of the late Henry Pfaff, Jr., of Lexington, who left an estate valued at $300,000. Judge Joyce held his decision with the clerk of courts at East Cambridge. In it he denies all of the charges against the late Mr. Pfaff.

Mrs. Pfaff asked for a revocation of the bequest allowing the will and appointing her executor of a trust of the estate. She also asked for a widow's allowance, an inventory and accounting of the estate, and the settlement of a widow's portion.

Mrs. Pfaff claimed to be the lawful widow of Henry Pfaff, Jr., and that she and her two children went to Mrs. George H. Pfaff and her two children, Gerald H. and Anne, to the home of the late Mr. Pfaff.

The original content of the will was read before Judge McIntyre at East Cambridge.

'Lohengrin' Given To-Night With Many Stars in Cast

Johnston (Lohengrin), Louise Henry (Elsa) and other great singers of the Metropolitan Opera House will appear in the new production of 'Lohengrin' at the Metropolitan Opera House to-night.

Alfred Herrmann, who has been singing 'Lohengrin' for many years, will appear in the title role. He was written before he received the main dramatic role, and while dramatic in a certain degree and encountering with marvelous skill, it is still purely lyric, with beautiful melody for the singers.

The story is well known. Elsa, daughter of the king, is married to the knight Lohengrin, who has disappeared. His wife, Elsa, is left alone.

Love to Live by Magic.

The larger dramatic and musical parts are in Elsa's character, and she will give more to question and ask the name. If the Lohengrin, her husband, is dead, she is left alone. The reason is that she is left alone.

Boston Society Women Rally to Aid Girl Strikers

'A lyric tenor of the first rank'

now sings for the EDISON

While New York audiences are crowding to hear Slezak at $5.00 a seat, you, wherever you are, can hear him, not only in one opera but in the principal tenor arias from all the more prominent operas that he sings.

Ask your dealer to play for you Slezak's rendering of "Celeste Aida," the most beautiful and best known aria from Verdi's masterpiece.

Only on Amberg Records can you get Grand Opera as it is meant to be played and as it is played at the Metropolitan Opera House. And only on the Edison Phonograph can you get Amberg Records.

Amberola—The newest Edison is a wonderful record. It is the most beautiful and best known aria from Verdi's masterpiece.
